Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern,

I first met Mr. Robertson in 2009 through the close friend of mine. I had been in need of a tutor for my daughter and found Mr. Robertson, with his profound knowledge of the language, extremely competent and appropriate for the position.

Throughout the years, Mr. Robertson has constantly provided services of the utmost standard and has been very consistent. His punctuality and diligence has never ceased to impress me. Mr. Robertson shows great passion for his work and strives to complete each task with nothing less than perfection. When conducting lessons, he always brings extra material and information. His students have commented that his manner of teaching and explaining is comprehensive and detailed, yet also very clear and never superfluous. Another aspect that must not be overlooked is Mr. Robertson's flexibility, making him adaptable to a vast range of situations.

Furthermore, Mr. Robertson has been being the longest serving tutor I have ever employed. He has proven himself to be extremely capable and hardworking. I am honored to have had Mr. Robertson tutor my own daughter.

Yours sincerely,
Seung Min Noh
